Council to recognize Juneteenth Pageant winners

Ceremony on Tuesday to feature talented group of 2022 winners

The Common Council will formally recognize the city's 2022 Juneteenth Pageant winners at its regular meeting TOMORROW – Tuesday, July 12 – at City Hall, 200 E. Wells St.

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs, an ardent Juneteenth booster whose 6th District includes the home of the annual Juneteenth celebration, said she believes it is important to honor the young pageant winners. "These talented young stars are going places and possess qualities we try to foster in our children, as they will one day be leaders in our city and our state," she said. "It is important that city leaders take the opportunity to support them in their journey and share the pride with the entire city."

The winners to be recognized are:

TERRI ELISE MIMS was named Miss Juneteenth Day 2022 and is a recent graduate of Milwaukee Lutheran High School who plans on attending Georgia State to study Media and Film. Terri enjoys theater, public speaking, and writing which she hopes to use to encourage and inspire others in the future.

MADISON DONALD was named Little Miss Juneteenth Day 2022. She will be a 6th grader at La Escuela Fratney and enjoys singing in a choir, dance, and Taekwondo. Madison is also a proud bilingual student who loves to speak Spanish with her brother and looks forward to attending the Milwaukee School of Languages. She also hopes to one day have a career in dermatology.
